FREE COMPUTER CLASSES AT THE CENTRAL LIBRARY Computer Basics and Google Docs Offered in Small Group Classes

Santa Barbara, CA. July 12, 2012

The Santa Barbara Public Library System is offering free computer classes to the public in July. The small group classes will be held in the Townley Room of the Central Library, 40 E. Anapamu St. Computers will be provided for all classes. Reservations are required and may be made by calling the Central Library Reference Desk at 805-564-5604.

In the Computer Basics class, limited to six students, beginning level computer learners will become familiar with basic keyboarding skills and searching the Internet using Google, and will learn how to set-up and use email. The class will be held on Tuesday, July 24, from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m.

For those with some experience who would like to learn how to create, edit, and share documents online from any computer, the Google Docs class will be on Sunday, July 29, from 3:00 to 4:00 p.m. Anyone interested in learning to manage documents, spreadsheets, and presentations with Google Docs may reserve a place by calling the Central Reference Desk at 805-564-5604.

Both classes will be repeated in August. All Library programs are free and open to the public. For more information on these and other Santa Barbara Public Library events and services, visit SBPLibrary.org.
